

About Us

Raccoon Forks Farms offers employment opportunities to people with intellectual disabilities and other barriers to employment. Raccoon Forks Farms strictly uses sustainable farming practices. Our operation provides people with a chance to better their lives, and fresh, chemical-free, locally-grown produce for you!

Community-Supported Agriculture is a unique partnership between farmers and consumers who want to support locally-grown food. Members buy into the risks and rewards of a local, sustainable farm by purchasing a “share” in the seasons’ bounty.

Our Vegetables and Poultry

You can expect a variety of vegetables in your box depending on the season. We grow staples like green beans, carrots, cabbage, tomatoes and potatoes. But we also like to add a little variety, so we'll include specialty produce like okra, Swiss chard, kohlrabi, and leeks, as well!

We send any damaged vegetables to our lovely poultry friends. Our chickens love the addition of fresh veggies to their diet of grass and yummy bugs. Along with the best diet possible, we believe sunshine and space to roam create happy, healthy poultry. Our happy, healthy birds in turn give us rich, large, and delicious brown eggs!
